

What to do

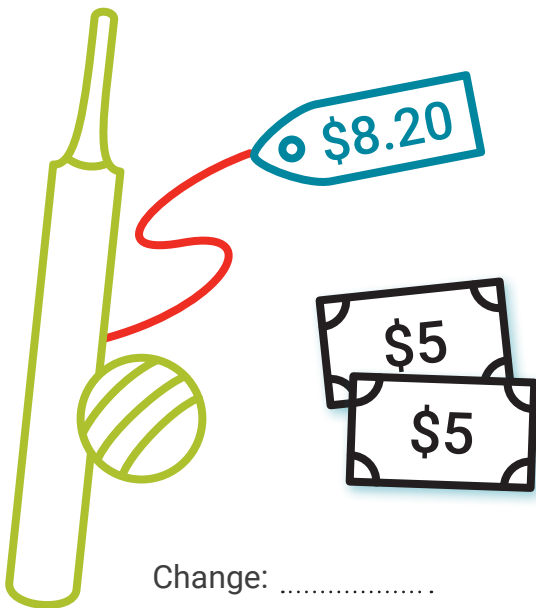

When you are shopping you will sometimes get change from the shop assistant. What is change? Change is the money you get back if you provide the shop assistant with more money than the value of the item you are buying. Each item has a price and below is the amount of money you have to pay with. Subtract the price of the item from the money you have to spend.

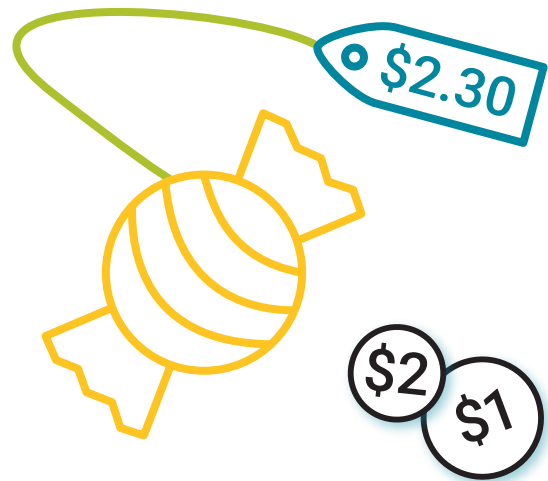

Change:

Change:

Change:

Change:

How much change do you get?