Investments in the Lutheran Laypeople's League (LLL) are designed for investors who wish to support the charitable purposes of the LLL and for whom the consideration of profit is not of primary relevance.

The LLL is not prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority, and advises that contributions to the LLL do not obtain the benefit of the depositor protection provisions of the Banking Act 1959.

The LLL is a charitable investment scheme and pursuant to the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) Class Order 02/184 is not subject to the normal disclosure or trust deed provisions of the Corporations Act 2001. Accordingly, the LLL has not been examined or approved by ASIC.

The LLL holds an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) No. 329339 issued by ASIC, which authorises the LLL regarding its non-cash payment facility. This facility is the LLL@Home Internet Access Service (LLL@Home) offered through the LLL website at www.lll.org.au.

The information contained in the website and in LLL documents is not intended to constitute financial product advice for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001. If such considerations are a concern, investors should enquire or seek advice from an appropriately authorised person before investing. It contains general information and has been prepared without having regard to any person's particular circumstances, financial situation, needs or objectives. Because of this, you should, before acting on the information, consider its appropriateness, having regard to these factors.

The LLL relies upon and contracts with third parties to deliver a number of its services and advises that those parties hold relevant licences and registrations as required under legislation and relevant statutory authorities within Australia.

Whilst every care has been taken in producing this information, to the extent permitted by law, the LLL does not guarantee the accuracy or completeness of the information.

The LLL accepts no responsibility for any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by you as a result of any error, omission or misrepresentation in relation to this document.

LLL@Home Internet Access: I acknowledge that I have read and understood the Financial Services Guide (FSG) and Product Disclosure statement (PDS) and accept the terms and conditions on which the LLL@Home facility is provided. (Refer to www.lll.org.au or contact us if you require a copy of these documents). The LLL provides the LLL@Home facility pursuant to its AFSL No. 329339.

Tax File Numbers/Exemptions: Although it is not compulsory to supply your TFN or Exemption details, if you choose not to, under Government regulations the LLL is obliged to deduct withholding tax from interest earned on this account at the highest marginal rate of tax, plus Medicare levy. Pensioners may either quote their TFN or list their Pension type.

*ID Statement: Government regulations may require the LLL to obtain additional identification from you to open or transact on an account.
